ABOUT IANAP

The Employment and Development Institute (IANAP) is a non-profit educational organisation operating as a certified Lifelong Learning Centre in Greece.

For more than two decades, IANAP has been supporting lifelong learning, employability, social inclusion and professional development through innovative educational programmes and vocational training opportunities.

Our mission is to empower individuals and organisations through accessible, high-quality education that responds to the evolving needs of society, the labour market and the digital era.

We design and implement educational programmes using both formal and non-formal learning methodologies, placing strong emphasis on participation, interaction and learner-centred approaches.

IANAP works with learners, educators, public authorities, businesses and civil society organisations to create meaningful learning experiences and strengthen human capital at local, national and European level.
